

Policy on Reporting Incidents of Child Abuse & Neglect

All Achieve Beyond employees and contractors are deemed to be mandated reporters of Child Abuse.

Child abuse, maltreatment and neglect includes, but is not limited to:

- Physical injury or sex offense committed by a parent or other legally responsible person
- Situations where a parent or legally responsible individual knowingly allows someone to inflict harm on a child
- Insufficient food, clothing or shelter
- Lack of proper supervision, guardianship or care
- Drug or alcohol abuse that places the child in imminent danger

If circumstances indicate that there may be child abuse or maltreatment present, the employee or contractor is to make a report to the appropriate Child Abuse Reporting Hotline. Attached is a list of the Child Abuse Reporting Hotlines per county. In addition, the provider must report the incident to the Achieve Beyond Compliance Office and the respective Program Manager.
